"To Do" This Month:

- ✓ Be sure you have kept a copy of the September Newsletter or can access it at www.fvap.gov. It contains essential information on the procurement procedures for the 2004-05 Guide and other 2004 election materials.
- ✓ Be sure to check your inventory of absentee voting materials to determine what you may need to perform your duties as a VAO. Do not forget to include family members when determining the quantity of voting supplies needed.
- ✓ Check with your Service Voting Action Officer for a schedule of voting workshops coming to your installation or geographic region.

A roundup of voting news from the Federal Voting Assistance Program (FVAP)
For voters, potential voters and those who assist voters.

Attention All Voting Assistance Officers...

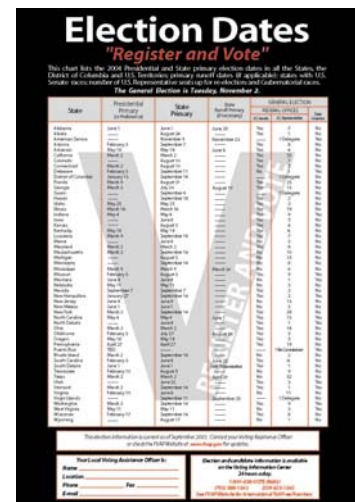

The FVAP has prepared many new materials for the 2004 elections. Along with distribution this month of the 2004-05 Voting Assistance Guide (illustrated on page 4) and the Election Dates Poster, the FVAP will release two new motivational posters (depicted below).

Motivational Posters

The FVAP has produced the motivation posters for Voting Assistance Officers (VAOs). They are designed to remind voters about elections and to motivate them to register and vote. VAOs should display the posters in places where they will be seen to help promote voting participation. The motivational posters are available in large or small size for those VAOs who have limited display space.

To obtain your copy of the Guide and posters, check the September issue of this newsletter for instructions on ordering voting materials. The Guide is also available online in PDF and text format at the FVAP Website www.fvap.gov. Your Service Voting Action Officer (see page 3) can provide further instructions for ordering other necessary absentee voting materials (i.e., FPCAs, FWABs, pamphlets, and election calendar). Know your normal supply channels, and be prepared by having these materials on hand. ☑
